2016 PROCUREMENT POLICY FRAMEWORK FOR THE WORLD BANK AIDED PROJECTS

(Septemebr 7 – 18, 2020)

The World Bank, along with other regional multilateral funding agencies, is funding around 140 billion dollars every year for undertaking various developmental projects. The procurement function plays an important role in completing the project on time, within the budgeted cost and to a desired level of quality to accomplish 'Best value for the Money'.

The Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI), in association with the World Bank, the Department of Economic Affairs, Ministry of Finance, Government of India and GPCL Consulting Services Ltd. (GPCL), since 1995, has conducted 72 Programmes on Procurement Management according to the procurement policies of the World Bank. A total of 4042 senior officials from over 53 countries have already attended the programme. Further, projects funded by the World Bank and its affiliates have repeatedly sent their officials along with the Bank Staff to these programmes.

The World Bank has introduced new Procurement Policy and Regulations effective from July 1, 2016 for all projects that are financed by the Bank from July 2016. The new Procurement Policy presented a major shift in conducting procurement under Bank financed projects. Core principles of procurement in Bank funded projects have been expanded to include the principles of Value for Money, Integrity and Fit for Purpose in addition to Economy, Efficiency, Transparency and Fairness.

This training programme will cover the main features of the Procurement Policy and Regulations including detailed coverage of various procurement and consultant hiring procedures approved selection methods / market approaches, the PPSD preparation, STEP and associated RFPS/ RFBs/ procurement documents.

The World Bank encourages the dissemination of its Procurement Regulations and usage of its standard procurement documents in its funded projects. Project Management Units/ Agencies may sponsor participants using funds from technical assistance or capacity building components under their projects. Interested officials are encouraged to discuss with their Project Directors for further details. To enhance the learning value of the programme, the design of the programme has been made interactive through a good mix of case studies and experience sharing. Highly well known accredited trainers and specialists of The World Bank with rich experience will conduct sessions, case studies and exercises. We suggest that you nominate four or more officials from your project or organisation to participate in the programme to avail 10% discount on the fee. Please find herein the brochure of the programme for your kind information and perusal. You may like to use copies of the nomination form to nominate multiple officials from your project or organization. Should you require any clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to receiving nominations of your officers for this programme at the earliest. We may be contacted at shah.vilas@asci.org.in or info@gpcl.in

Yours sincerely,
