

CREATING PROGRESSIVE BOARDS

Programme Overview

The corporate board of directors' primary role is to provide a strong oversight and strategic support for management in creating value for the shareholders. In India, the regulatory pressure, shareholders' demand and corporate governance reforms in the last decade has intensified the functioning of the board. Not only better monitoring, a board can add tremendous value to the company by taking a leadership role. Directors should know when to take charge and when to get out of the way, when to collaborate and when to interrogate on critical issues. This programme is designed to examine the changing role of the board in India with a corporate governance perspective.
