

CREDIT MONITORING & FOLLOW-UP IN BANKS/ FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Programme Overview

Banking is a function of profitability, liquidity, and risk management. As credit is one of the main drivers of a bank/financial institution's efficiency, soundness, and sustainability, monitoring of credit accounts assumes importance. This programme is designed in such a way that the participants will excel in their career by attending the sessions, understanding the concepts and nuances, going through latest regulations in the Banking apart from discussing the case studies / engaging in practical assignments.

Impact

- ◆ To appreciate about the best practices in monitoring of corporate credit portfolio.
- ◆ To learn how to manage impaired assets in the best possible manner.
- ◆ To understand early warning signals and maintain asset quality.
- ◆ To develop practical insights on regulatory environment in the banking industry in the context of credit monitoring.

Participant Profile

Officers (middle management to senior management level) such as branch managers, managers in recovery cells, legal officers, credit officers in Small and Medium Enterprises Segment, mid-corporate, and large corporate segments, credit monitoring/administration departments, etc. in banks/ financial institutions including state financial corporations, non-banking financial companies, infrastructure finance companies, etc.

Programme Director

M Srikanth

Dates : 22–24 November 2017

Fee : ₹ 34,000/-
(US $ 1495) +
Applicable Service Tax