PROJECT AND CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

Programme Overview

Due to the complexities associated with executing both small and large scale projects, in all domains of expertise, more and more organisations are focusing on the development of Project and Contract Management skills. The need for cross-functional coordination, human aspects of project success, intricacies of project formulation, implementation and evaluation and effective administration of contracts during execution, have become key success areas of project management expertise. This programme aims towards meeting the current needs of a project manager both from the organisational and individual perspective. The programme adopts an interactive approach, with a judicious blend of pedagogical tools like lectures, case studies, simulation exercises, group discussions, audio visual aids, business games and other exercises.

Impact

The programme provides a broad project and contract management perspective to executives in industrial, service and governmental organisations. The specific objectives of the Programme are:

- ◆ To acquaint participants with tools and techniques to develop effective and efficient project planning, implementation and monitoring systems for various projects and contract award and implementation and
- ◆ To provide a forum for executives from different organisations to discuss various problems, issues and techniques of project and contract management and share their experiences for implementation of projects and contracts.

Participant Profile

Senior Executives and Managers responsible for project planning, appraisal, contract, commercial management and project implementation in financial institutions, development authorities, research and development agencies, construction companies, manufacturing industries and service organisations.
