Dear Sir/Madam,

Programme on
Financial Systems, Management and
Accountability in Government

(September 23 - 27, 2019)

As you are aware, in recent years there has been an emphasis on improvement in the quality of governance. A key aspect of good governance is effective management of public resources, transparency in functioning and accountability. While the responsibility for this devolves on many wings of the government, the chief accounting authorities/secretaries of departments shoulder considerable burden in ensuring better financial management.

It is against this backdrop, that the Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) is conducting a five-day training programme on 'Financial Systems, Management and Accountability in Government' from September 23 - 27, 2019. The programme is targeted at chief accounting authorities and senior officers responsible for financial management of the various administrative departments as well as senior officers of the finance departments of the union and various state and union territory governments. The programme aims at enhancing holistic understanding of the Public Financial Management and Accountability (PFMA) system of government, its limitations, challenges faced by it and reforms that are being undertaken in overcoming them.

We believe that the above programme will lead to better appreciation of the more proactive role that is needed on the part of governments to bring about greater fiscal discipline, better accountability and enhanced transparency—leading to better governance.

Earlier programmes on the topic were extremely well received & appreciated. Our participants were drawn from Union Government ministries and departments, State Governments and the Defence Services.

A brochure setting out the details of the programme is enclosed. We look forward to receiving your nominations at the earliest.

Yours sincerely

Sutanuka Dev Roy
