(Study Tour: Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, Zurich, Paris, Amsterdam, Brussels)

Dear Sir / Madam,

Warm greetings from the Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI)!

ASCI's Advanced Management Programme-2025 is a world-class learning experience designed to develop competencies for global leadership. The Indian component of the programme will focus on analysing the global business environment formulating global strategies, achieving operational excellence and leveraging leadership potential. The academic content of the programme will be delivered by Faculty at ASCI and Experts from industry.

The Europe component of the programme will be delivered through a synergetic collaboration with SDA Bocconi, a leading business school in Milan. The Faculty at SDA Bocconi will provide a perspective on the European economy and strategy, formulation in a global context. In Europe, the participants will be visiting global corporations to get practical insights into the application of the concepts.

AMP-2025 has been positioned to provide the competencies for fulfilling responsibilities at the Board level and CXO positions. The programme provides the participants an opportunity to interact with industry leaders and broaden their professional network through shared experience with the peer group. ASCI-AMP Alumni have benefitted from attending our earlier programmes and have been promoted to Board/CXO positions.

The enclosed brochure gives the details of the Programme.

The participants will receive two Certificates of participation – one from ASCI for the Indian component and one from SDA Bocconi for the European component.

We look forward to receiving nominations from your organisation. In case you need any further information please contact us.

Thanking you,

With best regards,

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF COLLEGE OF INDIA

AMP-2025

Leading Strategic Innovation

Programme Overview

The Advanced Management Programme (AMP) of Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) is a world-class learning experience that is designed to accelerate the career growth trajectory of the participants aspiring for top management positions. More than 900 top executives from prominent public and private sector organisations have benefitted from the programme till date.

The programme offers a unique opportunity to reflect on the significant developments in the external business environment and their implications in the formulation of strategy. The programme is designed to provide comprehensive coverage of the process of strategic change in an increasingly complex business environment. The functional strategies in Operations, HR, Finance and Marketing, will be relevant in the changing business environment, and are deliberated through innovative methodologies by academicians and industry experts. AMP participants experience global management practices and business strategies for driving growth by working together in groups on thought provoking case studies, guided by faculty who are among the best in the world.

The programme provides networking opportunities for a select group of proven business leaders to share their experiences of achieving sustainable growth. The intensive and transformative learning experience of AMP 2025 will surely help participants to contribute towards increasing the profitability of their organisations and create value for their stakeholders.

International exposure to the world-class management practices will benefit the participants to expand their perspectives on organisational issues and subsequently help them to reach the highest echelons of decision making.

Impact

- Enhance competencies to track developments in the global business environment and understand the implications for business
- Sharpen skills to steer organisations by leveraging leadership capabilities
- Develop strategies to achieve global leadership through organisational excellence and value creation

Participant Profile

ASCI's AMP cohort is a selected group of senior officials drawn from the top management teams of Public & Private sector companies, and Government departments with cross-functional responsibilities, likely to assume board level positions. Past participants of AMP included CEOs, CXOs, Managing Directors, Directors, Executive Directors, General Managers, Additional General Managers and Senior DGMs on the verge of promotion from reputed Public and Private Sector organisations. Top level executives from commercial banks, finance companies and Reserve Bank of India would also benefit from the programme. Officials from Government organisations such as the Ministries, Armed Forces, and Ordnance Factory Board would also find the programme valuable.

Organisational sponsorship is essential

Indian Component

The programme will be delivered in five modules. The global business environment module is designed to enable the participants to develop competencies for tracking changes in the environment and evaluate their impact on business. A vital learning objective will be to develop skills and competencies to assess growth opportunities. The core components of the programme will be the modules on Leveraging Leadership Competencies, Strategic Innovation for setting up and managing New Ventures that emphasises on competencies to drive change in a complex global environment.

The module on Operational Excellence is designed to cover the tools and techniques that would contribute towards developing and sustaining a competitive advantage.

The leadership module is designed to develop capabilities that inspire high performance teams to carry forward the business initiatives of the organisation.

Alumni Speak

Distinguished Alumni of the ASCI- AMP have spoken highly about the programme. Many of the AMP participants have been promoted to CMD and ED positions.

Smt D Padma, Executive Director, Indian Oil Corporation Ltd

It was indeed a privilege to attend the AMP of ASCI focused on the theme of “Leadership, Change Management and Innovation”. All the strategic issues involved in managing organisations in a globally competitive world and transforming them to become sustainable leading companies of the future were well covered. It was an enriching experience listening to the distinguished faculty with their wealth of experience. It has certainly given me a critical perspective of management practices and the need to evolve and adapt to changing times.

Special thanks to Prof. Valli and Prof. Reshmy Nair for a well-conceived programme covering both the domestic and overseas modules. Industry visits, the overseas exposure and interaction with my peers from other organisations further complemented the holistic experience of learning.

Shri GSSV Suresh, General Manager, NMDC Ltd

The Advanced Management Programme is very useful in gaining knowledge in evolving higher management objectives, strategy, decision making, implementation, inclusiveness, corporate ethics, corporate social responsibility, sustainable growth, digital transformation, globalisation, environment friendly operations, zero wastage, less carbon foot print etc. It was a great learning experience by associating with different set of senior executives from different PSUs, observing different socio- economic-cultural identities of European countries, interaction with global standing senior executives of MNCs/faculty of top ranked institutions etc., which will definitely create value addition in our working environment.

Dr. Mohit Dhawan, Chief General Manager (SBU, EZ), Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd

The Advanced Management Programme offers an extensive learning experience in Leadership, Strategic Management and Corporate Governance. The course offers opportunities to network and learn from the experiences of Industry leaders and faculties, who are exceptional in their field. It provides excellent insight into the management strategies and initiatives taken by successful organisations. The interaction at SDA Bocconi and industry visits to world’s leading companies has helped broaden the understanding of global business environment.

Shri Subir Saha, General Manager, Power Finance Corporation

The AMP gave me new insights into my leadership capabilities. In professional terms it was “transformational”.

The SDA Bocconi programme was well designed and full of academic rigour which coupled with the industry visits provided a global perspective.
